

Aleph Finance Group Plc subsidiary Pairstech Capital Management LLP's new Executive Committee

On 11th of June 2021, Pairstech Capital Management LLP (the Company) has appointed a new Executive Committee (EC), composed by Andrea Sprizzi, Emanuele Rigo and Marc Miranda.

The new EC will be on charge of managing the Company for the next three years, to further pursue organic growth and expansion in the three main area of business (Fund Management, Wealth Management and Capital Markets).

A great thanks to Enrico Danieletto, former CEO since 2016, that has successfully lead the company over these challenging times, and especially over the last two years of the global pandemic.

People in the new EC have been working with the company for the latest five years, helping transforming it into a larger and more robust financial services firm, expanding its range of activities, with the latest achievement of ESG compliance.
